GURGAON WEST

The best of both worlds

Sultanpur Bird Sanctuary

Farrukhnagar, renowned for the captivating Sultanpur Bird Sanctuary, boasting a mesmerizing collection of 1,800 migratory bird species, is a place of serenity.

This enchanting sanctuary, set around a tranquil lake, not only offers a sanctuary to avian visitors but also provides a soothing and refreshing influence on the local climate.

Gol Bawdi

Farrukhnagar, with a rich salt trade history, is home to heritage gems like Sheesh Mahal, Gol Bawdi, and Dilli Darwaza, making it a heritage enthusiast's haven.

The area also hosts a 374-acre forest reserve sanctuary, ensuring a constant supply of pure, oxygen-rich air for all to enjoy.

Sarbasipur Reserve forest

This idyllic retreat offers a refreshing escape from the hustle and pollution of city life, cradled within the lap of nature.

Shielded from the urban heat island effect, it is enveloped by lush forests, serene lakes, and tranquility, all while maintaining excellent connectivity to the vibrant energy of the city.
